

Succeed at GCSE Religious Studies in Wales

Cardiff: 11 July 2019, 9:30am–3:30pm

Level: Secondary, KS4

Suitable for: All teachers of WJEC RS looking to deepen their knowledge and invigorate their teaching of the GCSE specifications for Wales. Perfect for both NQTs and non-specialists as well as experienced specialist teachers and heads of RE.

This one-day GCSE course has been designed to meet the requirements of the WJEC specification for Wales, and will be delivered in English.

The course will focus on ways to help teachers successfully manage the demands of the more content-rich and academically demanding GCSE specification.

Content

This will be a high-impact course with space for discussion, sharing ideas and reflection. The day will include workshops such as:

- What can we learn from the first cohort through Unit 1?
- Making systematic study exciting
- Unit 2: Tackling some of the trickier content, e.g. censorship and extremism
- Better extended writing that will get the marks
- Help with Humanism (and other non-religious worldviews)

Trainer: Angela Hill

with WJEC, working closely with them as a consultant, trainer and author.

New to her role as RE Today National Adviser, Angela is an experienced RE teacher and teacher trainer who has planned, taught and delivered CPD on the new WJEC. She has enjoyed a longstanding professional relationship

In addition to the training you will also receive:

- a folder of resources used on the course
- online access to a selection of relevant materials
