HELP! I'M A SECONDARY NON- SPECIALIST RE TEACHER

London

25 November 2020 9.30am-
3.30pm

Level: Secondary, KS3-4

Teaching RE to secondary pupils is a wonderful opportunity, but we know that it can be daunting if this is not your specialism. You're busy and, let's be honest, perhaps a little worried about the trickier topics or questions that could arise.

Outline of the session

This course is designed to give you confidence to teach great RE lessons from Years 7 to 11, including tips on dealing with GCSE RS. The workshop will help you to develop a sound understanding of RE in the secondary curriculum. Practical activities and resources will help you to plan and deliver engaging RE lessons, along with suggestions for easy and effective ways to develop your subject knowledge.

Content

This will be a high-impact course with space for discussion, sharing ideas and reflection. The day will include workshops such as:

- RE in the secondary school – the basics
- The wonders and the worries of teaching RE
- Dealing with trickier content and questions
- Developing subject knowledge
- Help with the GCSE framework

The day will include an opportunity to view and purchase a wide range of RE Today resources: teachers may like to come prepared.

Trainer: Angela Hill
