

BJRE

British Journal of Religious Education
Scholarly ■ Influential ■ Empowerment

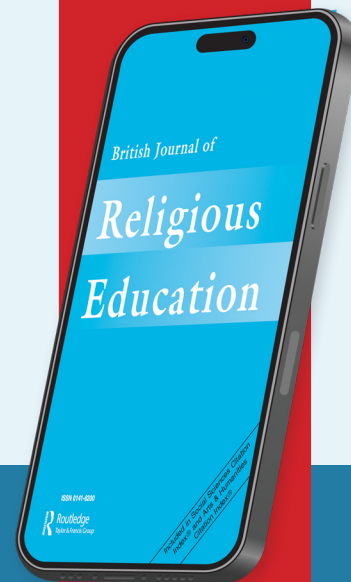

Influencing Religious Education academic research for over 90 years

The latest issue, Vol. 46, features articles including:

- COVID-19 and religious education reimaged: discovering a reflective space through Hannah Arendt's concept of thinking – Nopparat Ruankool
- Teaching religious education as if the world mattered – Patricia Hannam
- Re-imagining the religious education teacher – Yonah Hisbon Matemba
- Rear-mirror view: representation of Islam and Muslims in the RE textbooks – Faheem Hussain Sabzali and Farid Panjwani
- Conceptualising religion and worldviews for the school opportunities, challenges, and complexities of a transition from religious education in England and beyond – Fay Lowe

FREE ACCESS
with your
NATRE
membership

To access login to your members' area:
natre.org.uk/member-login