

Opportunities in RVE:

Energy, aspiration and creativity for all

RE Today
Services

Westhill
make things happen

Image from NATRE's Spirited Arts Competition

Harmony in Diversity by Fatemah Zahra, age 12

A cross-phase conference supporting high quality RVE for learners aged 4-16

Bangor University, Friday 6th June 2025

Swansea, Vivian Hall, Dylan Thomas Centre, Wednesday 27th November 2024

9:45am to 3:30pm

This exciting in-person full day conference will inspire and empower you to energise, enhance and promote RVE in your setting. Take away extensive resources, flexible plans, examples of learners' work and ready-to-use, easily adaptable materials which align with and support the Curriculum for Wales.

Keynote speaker: Lat Blaylock

National RE Adviser and former Editor of REtoday Magazine

Lat will also lead practical workshops, along with Angela Hill, RE Today's Adviser based in Wales, and current Editor of REtoday Magazine. Breakout sessions will focus on different phases.

Teachers and educators working in Wales will also contribute to the programme.

£50 per person, £25 for additional participants from the same school.

Light refreshments included. To keep costs minimal, no lunch is provided.

Participants may bring a packed lunch or purchase lunch at the venue.

Find out more and book your place here:

www.retoday.org.uk/courses/rve

The conference will be in English, with many materials available in Welsh. We welcome opportunities for Welsh translation of our work. Please contact us to discuss.

Yr Athrofa
Addysg a'r Dyniaethau
Education and Humanities

This conference is generously supported by the Westhill Trust. We are grateful to Bangor University and University of Wales Trinity St David for their generosity in providing conference venues.